

Alpha and Omega

This symbol is at the top of the “Christ in the Garden” window.

Biblical symbolism: Alpha and Omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. When used symbolically in Christianity, they signify that God is “the beginning and the end,” meaning that God is eternal.

Biblical references:

“I am the first and the last.”

Isaiah 44:6

“From everlasting to everlasting thou art God.”

Psalms 90:2

“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God,
“who is, and who was, and who is to come,
the Almighty.”

Revelations 1:8
