

The Anchor

Given in honor of William F. Wiant, father of Becky Durrett.

The anchor was adopted by Christians as a symbol of hope in future existence. It was regarded, in ancient times, as a symbol of safety. This was seen in Hebrews 6:19, “We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.” The anchor is also a symbol for St. Nicholas, the Patron Saint of sailors and ships – offering safe voyage and protection from storms.

Given by Tom and Becky Durrett.

Biblical reference:

“When God made his promise to Abraham, ...
‘I will bless you abundantly and multiply your descendants,’

That hope we hold.

It is like an anchor for our lives, an anchor safe and secure.”

Hebrews 6:13-14 and 19
