EASTER BLESSINGS FROM THE MUSTARD SEED

Thanks to all of you who support the Mustard Seed with your time & resources. This past Tuesday, 57 families came to us for food (254 people)! Many have never had to seek this aid. They are the working poor or those on fixed incomes. Your donations & some vital grants allow us to serve. The milk and toilet paper you regularly bring us are vital to many families - every week! Current additional needs are: spaghetti & sauce, peanut butter & jelly, cereal, soup & crackers, shampoo & deodorant.

During Lent our joyful volunteers are sharing their smiles with hundreds of our neighbors. Please keep us all in your prayers & consider joining us for a few hours. Donations may be left at the church or delivered to us at the Mustard Seed. Please do not leave things at Mustard Seed unless someone is there to accept your gifts. We are open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 11 am to 3 pm. For a specific delivery appointment, call any of our volunteers or Dolores at 304-624-6077.

Happy Easter,
Dolores V. Yoke, Director

WE ARE HAPPY TO REPORT CHRIST CHURCH AND ST. BARNABAS CHAPEL COLLECTED $1,309.05 IN CASH DURING LENT FOR THE MUSTARD SEED. A CHECK WILL BE SENT OUT NEXT WEEK. THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS.
