Multi-Faith Earth Day 50th Anniversary Service

Washington National Cathedral and Interfaith Power & Light co-hosted an online service which focused on our shared call to climate action. It was a service of prayer and song in honor of the 50th anniversary of Earth Day this past week. Leaders from Sikh, Hindu, Buddhist, Jewish, Muslim, Christian and other spiritual communities shared their tradition's gifts through sacred text, songs, and, commentary. Each offered a unique gift in our collective effort to protect our Earth.

Links Problem

For unknown reasons links in the Good News Weekly are becoming unlinked. To get around this problem, you can type or copy and paste addresses into an address line. Another solution is to read the Good News Weekly from the church's websites. Those links are live.
