Winter Fest

The Clarksburg Visitors Bureau has announced the first annual Winter Fest, "Come Home for Christmas," on December 3-4, 2021, in downtown Clarksburg. A multitude of activities will be taking place in the area that surrounds Christ Church. Watch in the newspaper and other news media for all that is being planned. Christ Church's tentative plans include the following:

1. Open the sanctuary to the public between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. on December 4. CEC will provide masks.
2. Marilyn Blake will deliver two sessions on the stained-glass windows and symbols in the church.
3. Two sessions of Advent/Christmas organ music will be presented.
4. The sacristy restroom only will be open to the public.

Reports from Jr. Warden Chuck Critchfield

The water at Christ Church and the garage apartment has been tested for lead contamination by the City of Clarksburg and found to be safe under Federal guidelines.

In answer to two questions received lately: St. Barnabas Chapel has NOT been sold. It has once again been rented to another domination. St. Johns Evangelical Lutheran Church is renting it on Sunday mornings and renting office space there also. St. Johns is not affiliated with St. Mark's Lutheran Church located on Route 19 below Highland Hospital.

If there are any questions, please contact Chuck Critchfield, Junior Warden.
